AMERICAN EXPRESS TRAVELERS

HE United States Government has reduced the rates on its ships to South America. Now the finest ships—make the fastest time—offer the lowest rates.

Four superb sister ships have been allocated to the South American trade. They are among the finest ships affoat. The staterooms are extra large and most have private baths. The social rooms are exquisitely furnished. The service has been perfected after 50 years experience by the Munson Steamship Lines.

On these great ships Rio de Janeiro and the World's Fair is only 11 days away. Montevideo and Buenos Aires are but a few days beyond. S. S. Western World . . Sept. 2nd S. S. American Legion .
